

Oct 10 1970
Bremer Punished
After Scuffling

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13 (AP) — Arthur Herman Bremer, the convicted assailant of Alabama Gov. George Wallace and three others, was punished by a three-man panel Friday for instigating a scuffle at the Maryland Penitentiary, prison authorities said.

Bremer, serving a 53-year sentence for shooting Wallace and three others at a Laurel, Md. shopping center May 15, will lose for 30 days "second-grade" privileges for the Oct. 6 incident, which Bremer said was touched off when another inmate made a homosexual advance and threatened to kill him. Bremer will lose movie and exercise yard privileges for 30 days, starting Saturday.

"There was no evidence" to support Bremer's charge, said Bob Grams, an information officer for the state corrections system. "The board found Bremer to be the aggressor in the scuffle."